Kewaunee County Asks Voters Be Prepared on Election Day

KEWAUNEE, WI – Kewaunee County is asking that eligible voters be registered with photo identification in hand, before heading to the polls to cast their ballots on Election Day, Tuesday, November 8th, as high turnout is expected with the presidential race.

Kewaunee County Clerk Jamie Annoye reports that at least 7% of the eligible voters in Kewaunee County have already cast an absentee ballot with their municipal clerk. Annoye advises those who need to vote ahead of the election, contact their municipal clerk to make immediate arrangements to vote before Friday, November 4th, "Our goal is for all eligible voters to be able to cast a ballot and have that ballot counted," said Annoye.

Who is an eligible voter? An eligible voter is a person who is at least 18 years of age, a U.S. citizen and has resided at their current address for at least 10 days prior to Election Day, according to the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board.

For more information about voter eligibility, visit: <http://elections.wi.gov/>.

If you are eligible to vote, but do not have a Wisconsin driver license or ID card, you may obtain an ID at no cost for the purpose of voting from the Department of Motor Vehicles.
